Code of Conduct

In an effort to make the Shadow Valley Junior Golf Association the best it can be, the professional staff and management have developed a Code of Conduct that we expect all members of the association to adhere to. Shadow Valley prides itself on treating members of the Junior Association as young adults. Our interest is not only to help junior golfers improve their game, but also to help them grow and mature. The Code of Conduct is not intended to scare players, but to have Junior Golf Association members understand the consequences of their actions.

Violations of the Code of Conduct

- Abusive Language
- Club Throwing
- Cheating
- Disrespect of Volunteers or Officials
- Not adhering to the Dress Code
- Any other conduct not becoming of a SVJGA Member
